

COMMUNITY MEETING

Please join our Yakama Nation Tribal Leadership and our Ladies for the Committee for the Missing Native American Women, for the Yakama Nation Community Outreach meeting with the Washington State Patrol and Governor's Office of Indian Affairs to discuss House Bill 2951. House Bill 2951– Washington State Patrol will be conducting a study to increase state criminal justice protective and investigative resources for reporting and identifying missing Native American Women in Washington State.

The Goals of the meeting is to: 1) Determine the scope of the problem; 2) Identify barriers; 2) Create partnerships to increase reporting and investigation.

WSP will work with the federal department of justice to increase information sharing and coordinating resources to focus on the reporting and investigating missing Native American women.

January 14th, 2019, 9:00 to 4 p.m.

Legends Casino Events Center
580 Fort Road, Toppenish, WA 98948

